

Sunday 27, 1974

Dear Vickie and Jim,

It is 7:30 A.M. in the morning and I just fed baby and she is back in her crib. I decided to stay up so am having my second cup of coffee. I have gotten alot done. Folded clothes and emptied the dishwasher so I am glad now to have the chance to write a letter to you. I will have the baby until the first part of November so Mary and Mike can get moved and settled in their house.

Tuesday Night we are going to the Cirque dinner theatre with Phyllis Greger and Harry so Mary will come over and stay with Diane.

Mary and Mike stopped by last night and we played some bridge and lost thirty-five cents, but they were getting the best cards.

I am glad you are playing duplicate and you will soon get used to it and really enjoying the game. I will have to get back to playing soon.

Dads eyes are feeling good now and he can get his new contacts Tuesday and he is anxious to see how they feel.

I think I told you that Ruthie and Jack had us over for dinner last week. It was taking the baby and she was real good. Dad and Jack had a good discussion on our political situation.

It is raining out this morning but we have had a beautiful fall.

--- I have been interrupted since starting this letter, but everything is under control and I am going down to Frederick's now and buy some shoes. Dad is a good baby sitter.

Did you have any luck in Las Vegas, Jim?

More later.

Love,

More

